

Discuss

The Classroom is a Safe Space

Now that you have been through the scenario The Classroom is a Safe Space, maybe some of you have any immediate thoughts to share. If not, go through these prompts to initiate discussion and explore different perspectives.

If we only work on easing taboos around sexuality in schools, how might this impact our relationships at home?

Who do you see as the biggest winners and losers in this scenario?

What impact will this future development of sexuality education have on you or your organisation?

What challenges or concerns would arise for you or your group in this scenario?

What parts of this scenario do you see as the biggest threats? Why and how?

What parts of this scenario do you see as opportunities? Why and how?

What events in this scenario could be relevant for your group to dig deeper into?

How can the stories be developed further?
Ask yourself what would happen next!

Now that you have discussed what might be in the future, do you have any further questions or topics you would like to bring up for discussion with the group?

After you have finished the discussion, please spend some time reflecting individually on your key takeaways.

Reflect individually on the discussion you just had, using these questions as a guide. You may browse the scenario again while doing so, if needed.

Which objects or services from this scenario do you find the most interesting and why? Do they give you any ideas for what could be done today, if so what?

What opportunities do you see in this scenario?

What risks or vulnerabilities do you see in this scenario?