

Explore the potential to preserve and re-use existing barn structures through minimal architectural interventions.

A place to sit down around a fire

A place of social encounters

A place to get a warm night of sleep

A place to dry and hang your clothes

A place for drying and maintain your bike

A place to prepare and cook simple food

A place for doing your necessities

