

SYNTHETIC

: constructed by humans with a certain purpose.

defined as predictable, chemical, stable, lifeless.

LIVING

: originates from nature with multiple purposes.

defined as unpredictable, natural, adaptable, ever-changing

EXTRACTION

: materials taken out of its natural cycles, leaving gaps in nature.
defined as decreased, reduced, shrined.

GROWTH

: increasing on nature's own premises.

defined as increased, multiple.

FLAT

: an equal plane without raised areas.

defined as even, smooth, clean.

IRREGULAR

: an asymmetrical plane.

defined as uneven, textured, patterned.

HUMAN-CENTRIC

: focused on human needs, without considering nature.
defined as anthropocentric, inwards, consumeristic.

NATURE-CENTRIC

: encompassing environmental needs.

defined as naturogenic, outwards, biodegradable.

LINEAR

: take, use, and discard materials.

defined as momentarily, fragmented.

CIRCULAR

: keeping the materials in a loop.
defined as long-term, intertwined.